

PROPHECY FROM SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2022

By Nancy Campbell

I believe the spirit of the Lord would speak and say, "It is a time of change, sons and daughters. It is a time of change and you need to embrace the change for it is Me moving across the face of the earth right now. This is not done by your might or by your power but by My Spirit!

You need to embrace My Spirit, for I tell you, it is a season of change. Even as the seasons have changed, so I am moving in a significant change across the face of the earth. And you will begin to see it. You will see it with your eyes and you will wonder what is happening. Do not doubt, says the spirit of the Lord, for it is Me moving. For I am the King of kings and the Lord of lords and the One who reigns. There is no other God besides Me.

I will take down all other gods and I will begin to divide between what is of Me and what is not of Me. So, you need to be in sync with Me. It is not a time to be in allegiance with other spirits, with other people that do not know Me, thinking you will win them over to Me by being aligned with them. Do not do that, says the spirit of God, it is not the time. It is a time of holiness and My holiness is going to prevail and nothing will stand against Me.

Know who you are aligned with. Do not make allegiances with other gods, do not make allegiances with other people who are following other gods for I am the only true God and I am here to set people free. Those who want to be set free will be set free. But those who serve other gods will not be set free and you need to know the difference. There are those who are ready to be set free that I am sending you to but there are also those who are not going to come to know Me even though I would like to have them come to know Me. They will not because they are deceived by the god of this world.

Know this, the shift has happened. It is happening right now. Move with My shift! Do not look back upon the way you used to do things. Even in My body, the body of Christ, do not look upon the way things were done in the past. It is a new day. It is a new season. Forget the past. Do not be hung up by what troubled you in the past. Let it go! Let go of past grievances and move into My Spirit moving because if you don't let go, you cannot move forward. Let it go, let go this day! Let go of whatever is holding you back and step into the new, for I am on the move!

You will see this in government leaders. You will see this in different countries around the world, you will see this. You will see the change and look and wonder what is going on? It is Me. It is My time. Move with Me and fear not. Step into the new and allow Me to change you.

It is a season of victory! Embrace the victory! Embrace Me and remember; It's not by might, not by power, but by My Spirit, only, says the spirit of God!
