

Prophecy from July 7, 2024
Given by Nancy Campbell

I believe the spirit of the Lord would speak and say, fear not, my sons and daughters, fear not . There is a shaking across this land happening you have been visualizing and seeing, now it is playing out. I told you this was coming and it is here, now.

Do not delight in the things that are happening as people are being shaken loose but pray and intercede for My kingdom to be established for I will have a divine order In America. My divine order will be in place, says the spirit of God, and I am shaking this nation even as when the wind would shake an apple tree and the rotten fruit falls to the ground, that is what I am doing and you are seeing rotten fruit falling to the ground right now.

And I would have you, when you see these things happening, the darkness, even as it is happening now, pray and intercede. Pray that the people I have will come forward for the rotten ones are being shaken loose, and it will continue and you will see more.

I have told you great things are going to happen. There's going to be a shift, a pause. It is beginning to happen in greater form and you will see more and more.

But, I tell you do not fear. This is Me doing this so do not fear, do not fear for your lives or your livelihood or for your sons and daughters, or your grandchildren.

I will establish My plan in America, says the spirit of God. My Divine order will come to pass, says the spirit of God.
