

Prophecy from March 10, 2024 Given by Nancy Campbell

I believe the spirit of the Lord would speak and say, "I have told you, sons and daughters, that there was a great pause coming, that there would be a stopping and a halting.

Even now, it has begun. So I would have you be alert and aware of what's going on for things are not as it seems. You need to know that things are not the way they look right now and so you need to be very alert, very alert, discerning more than ever before, be discerning!

You might say, Lord, I don't know how to do that. It's okay, just ask Me, just a simple question, 'Help, Lord, what is this?' And I will tell you.

You need to have the greatest discernment you've ever had because the enemy is out to kill, destroy and deceive and right now he is deceiving those within My Body. I've told you that there would be a great falling away and even that is now beginning.

So, you need to discern when people are talking to you, it doesn't matter who they are if they're family, if their friends, discern, discern, discern! Already there have been many who have fallen away and there will be more because they have gotten deceived in their thinking that some doctrine was of Me and it was of the enemy! Discern the doctrines, sons and daughters, not all the doctrines that say they are of Me are of Me. Very important!

I am telling you this to expose the lies of the enemy, so you can see it!

Do not be drawn back into old patterns, old ways of thinking that is also what the enemy is doing right now. Saying this is the way you were before and your going back there. You haven't changed, you're going back to the way you were. That is a lie of the enemy, do not receive it and do not be tempted to taste the waters of what was previous before you came to know Me. That is like what the children of Israel wanted to do, they wanted to go back to Egypt and it was death to them.

Do not go back to Egypt, do not go back to the past. Do not listen to the enemy speaking in your ears, saying, oh, just take a little taste, it's okay, taste this. No, it's not okay. That will be your fall, sons and daughters, that will be your fall. I tell you the great pause is already at work in this nation. It is happening now.

You may not see it, but it is happening. I can tell you it is happening and I will have My way, says the spirit of God, and I will shake loose anybody that is giving heed heed to the devil. Do not give any room to the devil, not even an inch, do not give heed, It will be your downfall in this season. It is a dark season, it is a difficult season, yet, I am going to bring it all to a screeching halt and I will have My way, says the spirit of God.

It's also very important that you listen to what I am saying regarding others that I am drawing into the kingdom.

They may not look like they belong in My kingdom, yet if I am calling them it is not for you to judge. Do not judge. You are in a difficult season in this nation and you need To be aware especially now of what I am doing.

Remember what I said about shaking out government leaders. Think about that, think about that in the coming election because it matters for America. It matters to Me, who is in there. Do not go by your own understanding, or even what the multitudes are saying.

Look to Me, and ask Me because things are not as they seem. Be warned, says the spirit of God.
