

Prophecy from July 28, 2019 given by Nancy Campbell

I believe the spirit of the Lord would speak and say, that there is a shifting happening in My timing, says the spirit of God.

There is a shifting happening in the nation right now and in the state of Alaska. I am calling you, my sons and daughters, to be a part of this shift. Will you be ready, will you step into this right now, says the spirit of God?

Do not be discouraged, for it is I who have placed this building upon this land. This is My land, says the spirit of God,

I secured this years ago for My plans and My purposes and My plans and My purposes will not be thwarted for this Church, says the spirit of God. You need to be encouraged, you need to rise up and bring in the harvest for there is a new harvest of sheep that I am going to fill this place with, says the spirit of God.

Do not look to the old, look to the new. It is a new season. The shift is happening now, says the spirit of God.

My anointing is flowing in the land; my anointing is flowing for the reaping of the harvest. Open your eyes, open your mouths and speak to those who do not know Me. Bring them in for this will be My house; this is My House!!

And I will have My way here, says the spirit of God. Not man's agenda but My agenda.

For as you yield to Me, as you lean into My spirit; as you give yourselves totally and listen for My plans and are not deterred by what others are saying but listen only to Me, then I will establish My plans and My purposes here, for this is My land; this is My five acres. I have secured this. This is the spirit of God's plan for this place, says the spirit of the Lord. Know that! Know that and sow into it, for I will have My way here as you Yield to Me, lean into My spirit and are led by My anointing.

There will be many people set free. Many people will come here because of the love of God being poured out.

Do not be discouraged and do not fear. This shifting is of Me, says the spirit of God.

Have I not told you that I am rearranging your landscape, I told you that. Did I not tell you that I am repositioning

You? This is My doing, says the spirit of God.
