

Prophetic word from 08/29/21. Given by Nancy Campbell

I believe the spirit of the Lord would speak and say, Fear not, my sons and daughters, fear not! For I am still in control of what's happening in this world.

But I would say to you, this is a season of adjustments. Adjustments, sons and daughters, adjustments!

So, do not be afraid to step into the new; to step into what I am calling you to do.

Do not be afraid because of things that are happening and draw back. It's not a time to draw back.

It's a season to move forward. It is a season to be about My business.

So, I would remind you, the dreams, the things that I have spoke with you to do;

be out there, be doing them, it is the season, it is the time! There's not a moment to waste, says the spirit of God!

For I am moving and revival is beginning to happen, and many will be saved!

It is important, therefore, that you make adjustments, adjustments, each one of you, in your lives.

Whatever it is, you need to just ask Me and I will show you.

It might just be a little thing, it might be a big thing, it might be a move, or it might just be a move in the spirit, but you need to hear from Me.

Ears open! Ears open, sons and daughters! It's not a time to miss Me! It's not a time to miss Me!

And remember, I rule and reign! Follow Me with your whole heart, your whole mind, your whole body.

Do not be concerned about what the world has to offer, because the world is falling apart, says the spirit of God.

It is My world that is going to rule and reign, it is My kingdom that is going to be established here on the earth.

Do not forget that, do not forget it. Don't listen to the lies that the enemy is putting out right now.

He is trying to raise up all sorts of dissension, do not buy into it. You need to adjust to what I am telling each one of you to do in your lives and follow Me, says the Lord. Open your ears and listen!

If you listen to Me, I will guide and lead you.
