

Prophecy from April 10, 2022

Given by Nancy Campbell

Do not be surprised, My sons and daughters, by the things that are happening right now on the face of the earth. My river is being poured out. My river from My very throne is being poured out across the face of the nation in these times. There's a surge coming in My spirit.

Do not be surprised at the things that you are going to see coming to pass. Do not be surprised because you are starting to yearn for My spirit. Yes, you need My spirit, says the spirit of the Lord, because I am moving by My spirit right now. So accept My spirit, accept it. Be baptized in my spirit even as you have been seeking that. It is Me, it is the season! It's not just happening here, it's happening everywhere in My body right now because I am preparing you. I am preparing you for the harvest and you need to be equipped for the harvest, says the spirit of God.

So this why you are sensing this; why you are thinking, I need this, I need that, I need to be armored. I need all the tools in my belt. Yes, you do, because My river, even now, is coming from My throne, the very throne of heaven being poured out upon the earth.

So, jump into the river, jump into the river and bring those that are being called into the harvest. Bring them in, bring the souls in, for it is the season says the spirit of God.

Be full of My spirit. Be lit up by My spirit. Be that lamp on the hill; that light that people will be drawn to and speak what I tell you to speak for it is now, it is the season now, says the spirit of God.
